

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 28, 1881.

Holiday Directory.

The following are dealers in holiday goods. We cordially recommend them to the patronage of our readers:

A. M. Rogers, boots, shoes, hats, etc.
John Wheeler, oysters, game and good things generally.
F. H. Traxel, the confectioner.
Miss Lou Powling, millinery, etc.

Tink-a-tink-tink.

What do you think.

A reformer is here from Ohio;

You "cutthroats" and "lynchers"

The Devil, with pinchers,

Will surely get you when you die O.

The river is still going down.

The Fleetwood passed up the river Saturday for Pomeroy, in place of the Potomac.

No slaughtering was done at the pork house Saturday, but the workmen are busy killing and cutting up to-day.

Rev. F. S. POLLITT will begin a protracted meeting at Stone Church, on Lawrence Creek, next Monday night.

The Potomac will be calked, repaired and made ready for business by next Wednesday, when she will take her place in the Pomeroy trade as usual.

We have at this office a terapin on the back of which is inscribed "1801." It was found by Mr. Willie Gibson, one of our local explorers, in a cave near this city. It is quite a curiosity.

Texas Land.

General R. W. Gano will be at the office of Judge E. Whitaker, on Tuesday, Nov. 29th at two o'clock P. M. to settle with all persons who purchased Texas Land of him.

The Yeoman thinks "this will be a billious session of the General Assembly. The first thing, then, should be an appropriation for pills—that will at least, get the necessary business through.

Second street, between Market and Limestone, is generally so crowded with vehicles that it is dangerous to attempt to drive through it. Something should be done to keep this important thoroughfare open to the public at all times.

PETER BELL, while standing on the wharfboat at Manchester, a few days ago, looking at the Bonanza was pushed into the river by a hog running against him. He caught the wheel of the boat and was pulled out by by-standers. Maysville hogs will have to look to their laurels.

The fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of James and Rosanna Fitch, esteemed citizens of Lewisburg, will be celebrated at their home there on Thursday, the 1st day of December. A number of invitations to be present have been sent to their friends and relatives, and a most interesting family reunion is looked for.

MR. JOSIAH WILSON, executor of the late James P. Wilson, offers for sale the real estate of the deceased, at Minerva, consisting of a good frame residence and five acres of productive land. It is in an excellent neighborhood, and is a desirable piece of property. Read the advertisement for further description.

Timely Help.

A grandfather, coming to read his paper, found that he had mislaid his spectacles, and thereupon declared, "I have lost my glasses somewhere and can't read the paper." A little 3½-year-old girl desiring to assist him, answered: "G'an'pa, you go outside and look froo ze window, and I'll hold ze paper up so you can read it."

CALLED BY CUPID.

Eccentricities of a Scott County Runaway Party.

The visit of a runaway couple from Eagle Hill, Scott county, Ky., was the source of much amusement, this morning to those who witnessed their odd behavior on the streets. They came Sunday afternoon, about dusk, having traveled forty miles on horseback, and the same distance by buggy. The groom was H. C. Tucker and the bride Miss Nannie E. Hinton, and their attendants W. T. Courtney and Miss Tucker, the latter a sister of the groom. They went immediately over the river to see Esquire Beasley, and by a few taps of his connubial hammer were quickly and firmly welded into man and wife, much to their gratification, freely and quaintly expressed. Returning to Maysville, after supper, they insisted upon seeing the sights, and when reminded that it was Sunday and only the churches were going, insisted upon seeing the churches, and under the escort of one of our gallant young citizens went the rounds, spending a few minutes at each. Their comments upon the services, the ministers and the congregations were, to say the least original. After a good night's rest at the hotel they came out upon the streets hand in hand and paraded through town bareheaded, having learned, by some means, that it was not considered the proper thing for a newly wedded couple to appear covered in so polite a city as Maysville. Our citizens caught the humor of the thing, and everywhere they went they received marked polite salutations and attention.

Later in the day the party went to Daulton's livery stable to engage a vehicle to take them over town and fancying an Irish jaunting car, secured it in preference to the more orthodox vehicles. Seated back to back in it they made the round of the city much to the public amusement. They left for home in good condition and much pleased with the special attention shown them during their short stay.

PERSONAL.

Points About People here and Elsewhere.

General Echols passed through Maysville yesterday on his way up the river.

W. W. Ball has returned from his visit to the Queen City. It is rumored that Billy contemplates bringing another "Miller" to town.

Dr. Malloy, a rising young physician of this county, lately practicing his profession at Lexington, has been appointed to a position in the Cincinnati Sanitarium, at College Hill. It is a merited compliment.

Miss Jennie Peters, of Portsmouth, who has been visiting Mrs. Kate Martin for several weeks, will return home to-night. Mrs. Martin will accompany her.

ACROSS THE RIVER.

ABERDEEN.

Mr. Spragg has returned to his work after a short visit to his home at Vanceburg.

George Durham and Mrs. Payne, both colored, were married at the preacher's residence Sunday evening. Uncle George is an old and respected citizen. We hope he may live long and die happy.

Master Orville Spragg, of Vanceburg, is visiting his father.

Don't fail to call and see J. D. Jackson, the Main street barber, if you want a smooth, clean shave, or your hair nicely cut. He can do it for you.

Arrangements are being made for an oyster supper and dance at the Toler House. It is to be the event of the season.

The Gretna Green has been thoroughly repaired and is out again.

Oliver Perry is the boss hog raiser of Aberdeen. His hogs average 600 pounds.

The roofers are at work tinning Helm & Cheesman's warehouse. Egnew & Co., of Maysville, have the contract.

The pastor of the M. E. church, south, returns thanks to the good people of his charge who so kindly remembered him in handsome donations on Thanksgiving Day. The tokens of appreciation, commencing on Wednesday evening continued to arrive at the parsonage until the evening of Thanksgiving Day itself.

Hechinger Thomas & Co., have opened a depot on market street, one door below Paul Hefflich's dry goods establishment for the sale of spareribs, backbones, tenlerolins, and sausage meat from their pork house below the city. This is a step that will be appreciated.

New England Opera Company.

The above named company of well-known musical artists will present Audran's Comic Opera "Mascot" at the opera house next Thursday evening. The troupe is one of the best that has ever visited this city, and will doubtless draw largely our musical loving citizens. The press notices we have seen speak of the company as one of rare excellence.

A Small FARM for Sale.

A PLEASANT HOME IN A DESIRABLE NEIGHBORHOOD.

A Sexecutor of James P. Wilson, deceased, I offer for sale his late home, situated in the town of Minerva, Mason county, Ky. This consists of a large two-story frame house and about five acres of No. 1 ground. On this place is a good barn, good well of water and two good cisterns, and splendid orchard. This is very desirable property to any one desiring to live in a quiet and retired place, while its close proximity to the town makes it easily accessible. There are in Minerva several churches and two good schools and every advantage that could be desired in a thriving country town. Any one wishing to examine the house can call upon R. L. Wilson, Minerva, Ky. Any one wishing to purchase will call upon or address the undersigned, Maysville, Ky.
